Description

Kerala has suffered significant damage as a result of the 2018 and 2019 floods. The Hon'ble Chief Minister of Kerala's Rebuild Kerala Initiative (RKI) has been crucial in accelerating post-flood restoration programmes and attaining the government's Navakeralam aim. As a result, from January 25 to January 31, 2019, the NSS Unit 570 volunteers of the Vijnan Institute of Science and Technology participated in the mission of Rebuild Kerala by conducting a seven-day special camp with the help of local bodies. The programmes of the camp included:

- (a) The primary goal of the camp was to conduct a digital survey of the Elanji Gram panchayat, during which volunteers collected information about the flood-affected areas and flood-related damages and uploaded the report via the "Rebuild Kerala" mobile application. The volunteers conducted a door-to-door survey in the houses of Elanji Gram Panchayat.
- (b) The volunteers helped clean the premises of homes that had been adversely affected by the flood. They removed the shrubs and weeds, gathered the trash, and used pressure pumps to wash the dirt and debris from the houses that were inundated with water due to the flood.

Outcomes

- Suggest various ways of getting involved with the elder people so as to spend quality time with them.
- Learn the importance of social service to those in need.
- Promote student collaboration and solidarity.

Description

An act of charity is benevolence. Giving and sharing what we have with others who lack it is the act of doing so. It entails freely lending assistance to individuals in need. Charity can take the shape of money, material goods, time, or even pleasant words. Basic needs like food, water, clothing, shelter, healthcare, education, employment, and security may be provided. You may make a direct donation, work as a volunteer for a non-profit, or put money into a charitable trust. The impoverished, beggars, orphans, widows, homeless, jobless, stranded, handicapped, ill, or injured persons are frequently the recipients of charity. Charity may also be given to those in your life who are in dire need of it. Keep in mind that "Charity begins at home". Recipients of charity could also be the people close to you who desperately need your help. Remember the saying, "Charity begins at home". If we can give to strangers, we should also be able to give to our very own.

As part of our charity programme, 40 volunteers from the college's NSS unit 570 and five faculty members visited Mariyalayalm Old Age Home at Elanji. This programme was set up to educate pupils on the value of treating the elderly with respect. They spent time sharing their memories and actively involved in entertaining the inhabitants with dance and music for about 2 hours. The coordinators of the old age home received Rs. 10,000 charity fund that had been raised from the students and employees of the Vijnan Institute of Science and Technology. It was a good experience for our students and they enjoyed the time spent with them.

Description

There are numerous environmental issues impacting the planet in which we live. Pollution is one of the most urgent problems since it is hurting our land, water, and air. Millions of tonnes of trash are produced annually, much of which finds its way into our rivers, forests, and oceans. This explains the significance of clean-up campaigns like World Clean-Up Day, National Tourism Day etc.

On January 1, 2021, the Vijnan Institute of Science and Technology NSS unit 570 along with the faculties of the VISAT Engineering College in association with Elanji Gram Panchayat celebrated National Tourism Day with a clean campaign in nearby tourist spots from the college location. In the morning session the campaign was held in Koorumala, a tourist destination in Kerala's Ernakulam district that is 2 kilometres from Elanji and 9 kilometres from Piravom. It's a stunning vista at the top of a relatively steep slope. The place boasts a viewing tower with a stunning view. In the afternoon session the clean-up drive took place at Areekkal Waterfalls, a tourist destination in Kerala's Ernakulam district that is 14 kilometres from Elanji. The volunteers were tasked with removing plastic debris from the area and cleaning the surrounding by removing the weeds and bushes. The Elanji Gram Panchayat collected the garbage gathered from Koorumala and Areekkal Waterfalls.

Technology students union and the VISAT administration coordinated a vaccination awareness drive in a few adjacent cities to urge immunisation for all. First, the officers from the Elanji Panchayat spoke to the VISAT family at the VISAT reception hall (new cafeteria) about the need of vaccination and precautions to prevent COVID-19 infection in the presence of the college chairman Mr. Raju Kurian and the college registrar Mr. Subin P S. Then, a roadshow was conducted in association with the Janamaithri Police Station, Koothattukulam for the nearby cities of Elanji, Monipalli, Kurivilangadu, Kaduthurthy, Peruva, Piravom, and Koothattukulam following the awareness talk. The roadshow was flagged off by the Sub Inspector of Koothattukulam Mrs. S N Sheela.

The team members who travelled to the region made an effort to give the villagers accurate scientific information about the vaccination and explain its significance in the fight against the epidemic. As part of the campaign, we also urged other students to show their support and enthusiasm for the COVID-19 immunisation drive by sending in photos of themselves receiving the shot. They also promised to promote immunisation in the interest of the general population. A couple of students went one step further and offered to create digital posters to promote the vaccination effort. The tableau representing the COVID-19 vaccination that VISAT Engineering College students presented was the major attraction of the roadshow. The drive's first day (9 February 2021) included Elanji, Monipalli, Kurivilangadu, and Kaduthurthy stops. The campaign was launched in Kaduthurthy by MLA Monce Joseph.

Description

The COVID-19 outbreak has made hand sanitiser highly popular. To avert the pandemic, frequent hand washing, hand sanitiser use, and mask use were common. To combat the COVID-19 virus, health professionals advised using a hand sanitiser that has 60 - 95% alcohol. However, physical contact between users of the hand sanitiser while using it can result in the virus spreading. Here, a foot pedal sanitiser dispenser is required. As a result, the VISAT Engineering College students of Electrical and Electronics Engineering Department designed and fabricated an effective Foot-Powered Sanitiser Dispenser. The dispenser uses a simply designed foot pedal to dispense hand sanitiser without the need for hand contact. Sanitizer dispenser stand is made simple and suitable for crowded spaces like hospitals, schools, retail stores, restaurants, etc.

The members of the students union made the Elanji public including hospitals, schools and offices aware about the need to use sanitiser in fighting against the COVID-19 pandemic and the advantage of the Foot Powered Sanitizer Dispenser . They also demonstrated the easy way of operating the Foot-Powered Sanitiser Dispenser without any hand contact thus preventing the spread of the virus to the public. The students also donated a Foot-Powered Sanitiser Dispenser to the Public Healthcare Hospital Elanji, which was then inaugurated by the President of Elanji Gram Panchayat. It was also made available online for purchasing at a cost of Rs 799 for the public.

Drug misuse is bad regardless of age, but lowering teen drug usage is essential to limiting drug use and abuse in general. Adolescents are particularly vulnerable to the seduction of illegal substances. Adolescents who abstain from using psychoactive substances until they become 21 are unlikely to use them in the future. Furthermore, individuals who start using drugs earlier in life are more prone to use increasingly harmful substances over time. Thus, one of the nation's most important public health objectives is to stop or postpone the use of psychoactive drugs by teenagers.

Alcohol/drug/substance abuse is becoming an increasing menace in our society. Vimukthi is an anti-narcotics campaign launched by the Government of Kerala to highlight the seriousness of the situation and to create awareness among the people, especially the youth. It is a collective effort aims at eradicating all sorts of narcotic substances from Kerala. It is being implemented with the help of students Police Cadets, Vimukthi Anti-Drug Clubs of School and Colleges, National Service Scheme, Kudumbasree, Residence Association, State Library Council, and anti-alcoholic organization, Different student, youth and Women's organizations and Vimukthi Committees formed in Ward, Panchayat and Block levels of Local Bodies.

The VISAT Engineering College Students' Union, in collaboration with Kerala Police Koothattukulam, organised an anti-drug awareness campaign to increase public understanding of the significant threat that illegal drugs pose to society at large, particularly to the young. The Government Hospital Koothattukulam and local schools were the locations for the campaign. The campaign's objective was to rally support and motivate individuals to take action against drug use. the shape of money, material goods, time, or even pleasant words. Basic needs like food, water, clothing, shelter, healthcare, education, employment, and security may be provided. You may make a direct donation, work as a volunteer for a non-profit, or put money into a charitable trust. The impoverished, beggars, orphans, widows, homeless, jobless, stranded, handicapped, ill, or injured persons are frequently the recipients of charity. Charity may also be given to those in your life who are in dire need of it. Keep in mind that "Charity begins at home". Recipients of charity could also be the people close to you who desperately need your help. Remember the saying, "Charity begins at home". If we can give to strangers, we should also be able to give to our very own.

As part of our charity programme, 25 volunteers from the college's NSS unit 325 and three faculty members visited Mariyalayalm Old Age Home at Elanji. This programme was set up to educate pupils on the value of treating the elderly with respect. They spent time sharing their memories and actively involved in entertaining the inhabitants with dance and music for about 2 hours. They had their lunch at the old age home and also served lunch to the residents. The coordinators of the old age home received Rs. 15000 charity fund that had been raised from the students and employees of the VISAT. It was a good experience for our students and they enjoyed the time spent with them.

Description

Free medical camps are organised with the noble purpose of raising awareness among the nation's underprivileged citizens, who lack access to basic medical treatment and are unaware of the illnesses they are afflicted with. Therefore, medical camps offer unfortunate people free medical advice and medication and refer them for specialised therapy or surgery when necessary. These camps ensure that individuals receive healthcare at the appropriate time and visit a doctor before a minor health issue worsens. Health camps are extremely important in disaster-prone areas and in communities that have experienced hurricanes, floods, and other natural disasters. A health camp's objectives and scope include spreading medical facilities throughout the designated area, promoting health care, early illness identification and screening, reaching the unreached community population, and raising awareness of various ailments.

The NSS unit 325 conducted a free Ayurveda medical camp at the VISAT campus for the public and college staff on 24/11/2022 from 9.00 am to 1.00 pm as part of the 'Ayurveda @ 2047'. Description

Blood donation is the practise of giving blood to others in order to assist them with their medical issues. One of our body's most crucial fluids, blood is necessary for its proper operation. Blood loss can lead to fatal diseases and even death if it is excessive. Thus, it is clear how giving blood physically saves lives and benefits individuals. In addition, it binds people despite differences in caste, creed, religion, and other categories.

Regular blood donation camps are held, particularly in rural areas and educational institutions, with the aim of raising awareness among children and the general public in these areas and encouraging voluntary blood donation. Village motivators, donors, and camp organisers have received the necessary training for the job. The college NSS unit 570 organised a camp for voluntary blood donation as an initiative of the community service club at the reception waiting room of the college campus. The camp was funded by HDFC Bank, Muvattupuzha and was conducted in collaboration with Matha Hospital, Ettumanoor. The camp was officially inaugurated by Dr. Sylvia Syriac from Matha Hospital. Along with the NSS volunteers, the college director, principal, registrar, dean, and heads of various departments were present in the camp. With about 40 donors, the camp wrapped up effectively.

Description

We have learned a valuable lesson from the pandemic that the globe has been dealing with for more than a year: we should cherish and honour the blessings that Mother Nature has given us. The natural ecosystems of Earth have been permanently destroyed by people for far too long as they have been used for their own gain. Now more than ever, it is imperative that we unite and raise awareness of how we are using our natural resources.

On June 5, 2023, VISIT NCC cadets celebrated the World Environmental Day at Fort Kochi as part of the mission 'Waste-Free Kerala'. Shri K J Maxi, the Fort Kochi MLA, inaugurated the gathering. In order to raise awareness of the negative impacts of beach trash and its detrimental damaging influence on the environment, the NCC cadets talked with members of the general public, visitors, local merchants, vendors and fishermen along the coastal areas. The chairman of the VISAT Group of Institutions, Sri Raju Kurian together with NSS volunteers and NCC cadets, planted trees in the nearby park as a part of the Environmental Day celebrations.

Together with volunteers and neighbourhood groups, a community clean-up campaign was carried out. The participants came together to clean up a neighbouring park and spread awareness of the value of maintaining clean surroundings. By about 4 o'clock, we finished the initial round of cleaning. At 06:30 pm, we finished our second round of cleaning. Throughout this campaign, the NCC cadets and NSS volunteers were extremely engaged and enthusiastic.

Description

Blood donation is the practise of giving blood to others in order to assist them with their medical issues. One of our body's most crucial fluids, blood is necessary for its proper operation. Blood loss can lead to fatal diseases and even death if it is excessive. Thus, it is clear how giving blood physically saves lives and benefits individuals. In addition, it binds people despite differences in caste, creed, religion, and other categories. Regular blood donation camps are held, particularly in rural areas and educational institutions, with the aim of raising awareness among children and the general public in these areas and encouraging voluntary blood donation. Village motivators, donors, and camp organisers have received the necessary training for the job.

A camp for voluntary blood donation was organised by the college NSS units 570 and 325 in the reception waiting room of the campus. The HDFC Bank in Muvattupuzha provided the funding for the camp, which was organised in association with the Amrita Institute of Medical Science in Cochin. Rtd. Wing Commander Pramod Nair, the college director, inaugurated the camp. Along with the college NSS volunteers, the principal, registrar, dean, heads of other departments and Mr. Radhakrishnan, the administrator of Amrita Hospital, attended the camp. With around 40 donors, the camp was successfully wrapped.

People are urged by Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi to realise Mahatma Gandhi's goal of a Clean India. The "Swachh Bharat Abhiyan" is a vast grassroots movement that aims to make India clean. Mahatma Gandhi held cleanliness in high regard. The greatest homage we can offer to Bapu is a clean India. Mahatma Gandhi dedicated his life to achieving "Swarajya" for India. The moment has come for us to dedicate ourselves to maintaining the cleanliness of our motherland, or "Swachhta."
