- 2.3 Identifying opportunities for conducting lectures and seminars and organising symposia and conferences
 - 2.4 Exchanges of academic information and materials
 - 2.5 Promoting collaboration in fields of mutual interest
 - 2.6 Promoting other academic co-operation and collaboration as mutually agreed.
3. The development and implementation of specific activities developed under this MOU will be the subject of formal written agreements negotiated and entered into separately, which will deal with the financial arrangements, confidentiality, ownership and use of intellectual property, publication of articles or other work and other relevant matters.
 4. It is understood that the implementation of any of the types of co-operation stated in Clause 2 shall depend upon the availability of resources and financial support of the Parties concerned.
 5. Parties acknowledge the need to promote the programme and activities pursuant to this MOU and hereby agree to use promotional materials that have been approved by the other Party.
 6. Both Parties agree that staff and students of either institution engaged in activities under this MOU shall carry out these activities in accordance with the laws and regulations of their respective countries after full consultation and approval.
 7. The Parties hereby agree that any documents or materials supplied pursuant to this MOU shall be treated as Confidential Information and both Parties hereby agree to ensure the confidentiality of such Confidential Information is maintained at all times for the duration of this MOU or for the duration stated in any formal agreement which may be entered into by the Parties.
